Current High School Rankings
 WIN's Team Rankings (March 20 Release)

Rk. School, Hometown Prev. Comment
1 Blairstown, N.J. Blair Academy 1 Made 29th straight Preps crown look easy
2 St. Paris, Ohio Graham 2 Set all-time records with 282 points, 7 champions
3 Harrisburg, Pa. Central Dauphin 4 Strength of field makes 3A three-peat special
4 Apple Valley, Minn. 3 Romped to 3A title, but B. Kennedy made them work
5 Northampton, Pa. 5 Only C. Dauphin's raw power prevented duals title
6 Huxley, Iowa Ballard 6 Stuff of records: 220 points, 9 finalists, 5 champions
7 Mechanicsburg, Pa. Cumberland Valley 7 Anywhere but District 3, they roll
8 Mill Hall, Pa. Central Mountain 8 Altons kept them in the hunt
9 Kingston, Pa. Wyoming Seminary 9 Finished 106 behind Blair, but 99 ahead of rest
10 Christiansburg, Va. 10 D. Carter, Weber highlight 4 champions
11 Inver Grove Heights, Minn. Simley 11 Repeated as 2A state champion
12 Brandon, Fla. 12 At state, 112-189: More champs (7) than losses (4)
13 Wilmington, Del. St. Mark's 13 Followed first dual crown since 2002 with 6 champs
14 Lombard, Ill. Montini 14 Breezed past AA with 4 champs, record 6 finalists 15 Lakewood, Ohio St. Edward 15 13th straight crown their toughest test
16 Wisconsin Rapids, Wis. Lincoln 16 Lubeck's upset win keyed dual state crown
17 Wausau, Wis. West 17 Lost twice to Wis. Rapids by combined 3 points
18 Hastings, Minn. 18 Vaith's huge win at 140 soothed duals absence
19 Schuylkill Haven, Pa. Blue Mountain 24 Second place in that field? Awesome
20 Greenville, Pa. H.A. Reynolds 19 Fell short in individual state, but love that balance
21 Lake Stevens, Wash. 20 King's repeat highlighted 5 finalists, 11 placers
22 Long Branch, N.J. 21 Voted first No. 1 Team in New Jersey award
23 Sussex, N.J. High Point 23 State duals DQ didn't tarnish great season
24 Wadsworth, Ohio 25 Balance led to fifth-place Division 1 finish
25 Massillon, Ohio Perry 25 Finished strong second in Division 1