ENERGY TAKERS vs ENERGY GIVERS:

ENERGY TAKERS: Wrestlers who need to be motivated

Energy Takers are pretenders who ask to be constantly convinced. Energy Takers need to be talked-up with emotional rhetoric, tricked into giving it their all. Energy Takers do not appreciate their God-given gifts; sadly, they do not know how to show gratitude or respect. Energy Takers are like spoiled children; they seek attention in all the wrong ways and for all the wrong reasons. Energy Takers are selfish individuals who expect to be served by others. Energy Takers demand everything from everyone, but, inexplicably, they require nothing of themselves. Energy Takers exhibit an undeniable sense of entitlement; they are aimlessly driven by ego. Energy Takers sabotage winning, undermining in subtle and passive ways. Energy Takers alienate, discourage, and divide their teammates; and they frustrate, exhaust, and suffocate their coaches and teammates.

ENERGY GIVERS: Wrestlers who are driven

Energy Givers are authentic individuals who live faith-based lives. Energy Givers invest 100% of themselves; they recognize the unforgiving nature of gifted time. Energy Givers treat their bodies like temples; they attack training with relentlessness and a focus that inspires others. Energy Givers have a sense of duty to the players who have come before them; they appreciate tradition and relish in the idea of linking the past to the future. Energy Givers are quick to recognize others, and they humbly go about accepting a role that strengthens the group and takes advantage of individual talents. Energy Givers are unselfish wrestlers who pay attention to detail; they drill hard, diet correctly, stay in a stance, defend a single, win close matches, listen to the corner, and purposefully and positively communicate. Energy Givers own their mistakes and recognize their weaknesses; they seek out those who will hold them accountable to the highest of standards. Energy Givers lead, encourage, and unite teammates; and they support, energize, and trust their coaches and teammates.

-Scott Callaghan-Head Basketball Coach Hoban Knights

THERE ARE THREE TYPES OF WRESTLERS IN THE WADSWORTH WRESTLING PROGRAM:

1. THE WRESTLERS WHO MAKE THINGS HAPPEN.
2. THE WRESTLERS WHO WAIT FOR THINGS TO HAPPEN.
3. THE WRESTLERS WHO ASK WHAT JUST HAPPENED.

WHAT KIND OF WRESTLER WILL YOU
BE IN 2016-17?

To my most thoughtful and lovely wife, Cindy Thanks to my wife for making all this work and assisting me in so many ways. Without her, I know I wouldn't be here celebrating another great year.

Academic Awards -Academic All Ohio and Scholar Athletes

JV/Frosh Wrestlers: NICK RANALLO To the Juniors, Sophomores, Freshmen: I hope you have learned from these varsity wrestlers. The years have gone by so fast. Their handwork and dedication has certainly paid off. Your job is to continue the excellence and keep the tradition going. Most of these varsity wrestlers have also excelled in the classroom and will go on to be successful in college and life. Keep your goals high and set your priorities of hard work in the off season. Do not become discouraged if your season did not turn out the way you wanted. You will see a dramatic improvement next year. Most of this year's high school varsity team did not have a winning record or wrestled on Varsity while in the 9th or 10th grade. Get to some tournaments, open mats, and camps this spring and summer and you will be pinning your opponents next year. You have the nucleus to carry on the tradition of the great Wadsworth teams that have gone before. Just continue to do it!

Closing comments: Coach Gramuglia

FINAL THOUGHTS: We had a great journey with lots of good memories. We did not win an individual state championship but Joey Baughman represented all of us in the Finals and he is coming back along with three more placers. We placed in the TOP 4 of the State of Ohio out of 177 teams. Even after some early injuries, football players getting into shape and only TWO losses to St Edward AND Elyria you kept believing and trusting in me and the coaches and the program. We do have the formula, we just have to follow it. Yes, we had memorable year. 25 in a row. But it is time to keep the excellence and remember To Believe in each other when it gets uncomfortable. This was by far a year in which the parents trusted the coaches and program that we are doing the right thing and avoided the controversy and spread less gossip and took ownership in Wadsworth wrestling. We have a great things going here that most communities are jealous of. People are jealous about Wadsworth. We became the 1st public school to win a State title since 1977 Nordonina team. But we have the target on our back. Four years ago Massillon Perry has repeated what we did in 2010. Two years ago Brecksville beat St Edward for the dual meet state championship. We will not sneak up on any body including St. Edward. We are in position to us ethis 4th Place and Banner finish this summer and keep our program on top. It doesn't matter what role you play- Little Sis, Stat, parent, coach, freshmen wrestler, JV, Varsity, SL champ, Sectional Champ, District Qualifier, State Qualifier, State Placer, State Champ, We are all do our part to maintain and propel our program even further. We need to keep the excellence by remembering even if it deals you a bad card once in awhile. Everyone matters! And everyone will benefit from the experience. We need to remember this in tough times when things aren't going as planned. Keep our petty problems from interfering from the total picture. Things will become more difficult as we continue to grow. Keep communicating and remain positive. Let's be ENERGY GIVERS NOT ENERGY TAKERS. TROPHIES COLLECT DUST; MEMORIES LAST FOREVER!

We need to use the power and magic we felt at the State to bring us more together than ever before, work harder than ever before- WHS camp, Jeff Jordan's team Camp and Battlezone's camp, open mats, freestyle and weightlifting. We are going to continue with our weight program WF in April and May and then MWF 6:55AM in the summer at the HS. Coach Ranallo will continue to tweek and improve our weight program. We will continue to use freestyle and open mats as a great learning tool to catch up or stay ahead.

Yet, we still need to remember is the special ingredient that we have learned from the entire experience the past years- Handling and dealing with adversity. Because struggling makes the wins mean more and the championships more special. Be determined not frustrated. Have less distractions and more loyalty. Keep the excellence by trying to do it a little better and When it gets uncomfortable: Believe in yourself! Believe in your teammates! Believe in your coaches! That team togetherness, unity and toughness gave us ...
